Mr. CALVERT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to an individual whose dedication and contributions to the County of Riverside are exceptional. Riverside County has been fortunate to have dynamic and dedicated community leaders who willingly and unselfishly give time and talent to making their communities a better place to live and work. Stuart Glickman is one of these individuals. On January 10, 2003, Stuart was honored as he retired as a Riverside Superior Court Commissioner.

A native born Southern Californian, Stuart was born and raised in Los Angeles. He was educated by Los Angeles public schools and was admitted to the State Bar in 1971. He went on to serve as Deputy District Attorney for Riverside County from 1971 to 1988. He was the Deputy in charge of the Corona Branch Office for ten years and assisted the Corona Police Department with training in the areas of search warrants and report writing. He also conducted courtroom training for police officers. He worked in the Riverside Superior and Municipal Courts, Corona Municipal Court and Hemet Municipal Court, handling both felony and misdemeanor cases.

In 1988 he was appointed a Municipal Court Commissioner in the Corona Municipal Court. In 1992 he was appointed a Superior Court Commissioner and oversaw assignments that included criminal, civil, family law, traffic, small claims, and unlawful detainers.

Stuart currently lives in Corona, California with his wife Ann of 43 years. He has two daughters, Marsha and Deborah, and is a proud grandfather of five.

Stuart has been actively involved in the community as a member and past president of the United States Navy League of Corona. He is also a member and past president of the Corona Breakfast Lions Club and a member of the Temescal Palms Masonic Lodge in Corona.

Stuart's tireless work as a Deputy District Attorney and a Superior Court Commissioner has contributed unmeasurably to the betterment of Riverside County. His involvement in the community makes me proud to call him a fellow community member, American and friend. I know that the residents of Riverside County are grateful for his service and salute him as he retires. I look forward to continuing to work with him in the future for the good of our community.

Mr. BERMAN. Mr. Speaker, we rise today to pay tribute to our good friend, Doctor Francine

Ratner Kaufman, recently named as the Woman of Valor for 2003 by the American Diabetes Association. During the past two decades, we have had the pleasure of working with Dr. Kaufman on numerous issues relating to health policy and we are delighted she has been chosen to receive this prestigious award.

Dr. Kaufman has devoted her clinical and research career to improving the lives of those afflicted with diabetes. She is a clinician who heads the Division of Endocrinology and Metabolism at Children's Hospital Los Angeles; a scholar who is a Professor of Pediatrics at the Keck School of Medicine at USC; a researcher who has received NIH funding for over twenty years and a leader who is currently serving as the National American Diabetes Association President. In short, she is a remarkable woman with an extensive and diverse history of accomplishments.

Dr. Kaufman, the principal investigator for several nationwide efforts to mitigate or eliminate the impact of diabetes, holds numerous patents on the formulation of ExtendBar, a snack bar designed to reduce glycemic excursion and episodes of hypoglycemia in diabetics. She has even developed an interactive, educational CD-ROM game designed for children with diabetes in collaboration with the Starbright Foundation.

Dedicated to helping others, Dr. Kaufman served as the medical director at a summer camp for children with diabetes in the San Bernardino Mountains of Southern California for more than twenty years. She also helped establish standards of care for the American Diabetes Association. Using her influence to help in her cause, she has led many advocacy efforts at the local and national levels to increase insurance benefits and to reduce discrimination against people with diabetes.

We ask our colleagues to join us today saluting our friend Doctor Francine Ratner Kaufman for her service and commitment to our community.

PAYING TRIBUTE TO MAJOR GEN-
ERAL E. GORDON STUMP, ADJU-
TANT GENERAL AND DIRECTOR OF THE DEPARTMENT OF MILI-TARY AFFAIRS FOR MICHIGAN

HON. MIKE ROGERS

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 5, 2003

Mr. ROGERS of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the accomplishments of Major General E. Gordon Stump who is retiring as the Adjutant General of Michigan and Director of the Department of Military Affairs for Michigan.

General Stump's distinguished military career and his leadership skills led to his appointment by Governor John Engler as Adjutant General and Director of Military Affairs in 1991. He has commanded the 150 units of the Michigan Army National Guard and Michigan Air National Guard, as well as directed two veterans' nursing homes and administered grants to a dozen veterans' service organizations.

Decorated many times for his service, General Stump served his nation with valor in the Vietnam War, in South Korea during the U.S.S. Pueblo crisis, and in various assignments throughout his more than 37 years of active and reserve duty.

Today, as America engages in a war on terrorism, General Stump is a role model for the young men and women around the globe who stand in harms way, defending our nation and the free world.

General Stump's devotion and commitment to this nation and the state of Michigan, and his leadership of the men and women of Michigan's National Guard and Air National Guard, and his service to the state's veterans organizations have earned him great respect.

On February 15, 2003, General Stump and his wife, Marie, will be honored by family, friends, associates, and Michigan leaders at a special farewell reception and dinner in East Lansing, Michigan.

Mr. Speaker, we wish to extend congratulations to General E. Gordon Stump on the occasion of his retirement. We are honored to recognize his many accomplishments and ask that our colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives join in recognizing his very worthy achievements.
